

International Week 2012

CBS Presents:

Discover Your True Talents in Chinese Martial Arts & Cultural Arts

Activities:

Chinese Martial Arts (12:30 – 1:30 p.m.)

featuring demonstrations on Taiji 太極, Wing Chun 詠春, Baguazhang 八卦掌 & Xingyiquan 形意拳 by a Famous Chinese Film Director

Master Gosum Ng (伍佳發師傅), the third generation descendant of Beijing “He Xiang Zhuang” (a famous Qigong school in China) will demonstrate and teach the visitors a series of basic techniques of Chinese martial arts which can help enhance one’s endurance fitness while film director Edward Yiu Ming Leung (梁耀明導演), who participated in “A Better Tomorrow III: Love And Death In Saigon” (英雄本色 3-夕陽之歌), starring Yun Fat Chow (周潤發); “Dragons Forever” (飛龍猛將) starring Jacky Chan (成龍) and Sammo Hung (洪金寶), will demonstrate different styles of Chinese Kung Fu. Participating visitors who are willing to take a “challenge” will have a chance to win a prize!

Dough Sculpture (1:00 – 3:00 p.m.)

Interested to see how a few colored pieces of dough are turned into expressive and lively figurines by the trained hands of a Chinese folk artist on campus? Mr Lo Yeung Fu (傅鷺陽先生), a multi-talented and well-respected artist who has devoted himself to Chinese folk art for more than 20 years, will demonstrate and teach you how to make dough sculpture using a variety of skilled techniques. Join this fun hands-on workshop to learn, create and surprise your family and friends with the quintessential Chinese dough figures!

Chinese Paper Cutting (1:30 – 3:30 p.m.)

Paper-cut is a traditional and distinctive visual art of Chinese handicrafts. For centuries, Chinese used the cut outs during festivals to decorate gates, doors and windows. Ms Yun Xia Li (李雲俠女士), a renowned contemporary Chinese artist whose extraordinary paper-cut works have received numerous awards and have been exhibited nationally and internationally, will demonstrate and teach you how to master the basic techniques of her intricate paper-cut creations. Come explore your creativity and make your own exquisite art piece in a unique oriental style using tools as simple as just a pair of scissors and sheets of red paper. Create something extraordinary out of something ordinary!

Date: 9 February 2012 (Thursday)

Time: 12:30 – 3:30 p.m.

Venue: CD Podium, PolyU

Registration:

Suitable for:

Enquiry:

Walk-in

PolyU students and staff

Linda Li / Wendy Liu

(ctlinda@polyu.edu.hk ; 3400 3117 /

ctwendy@polyu.edu.hk; 3400 3653)

Presented by:

