Bob, an Alpine Skier, comes to Korea in search of his mother. He was born in Korea and adopted to American parents. Jong-sam, a ski coach, approached Bob to establish the National Ski Jump team. Chil-ku, Heung-cheol and several other members joined the team after many twists and turns. This pathetic team without ski jump experience had to go through unusual training such as practicing on the top of cars and riding the roller coaster in an amusement park. They participated in Winter Olympics but they were challenged to be dismissed..... The movie is based on a true story.
